

Commander Nicolò PISANI

CDR Nicolò PISANI was born in Molfetta on 9th May 1975.

He joined the active service in the Navy attending to the courses in the Naval Academy in Livorno from 1994 to 1998. He achieved a degree in Electronic Engineering and Naval Maritime Science. In 1999 he participated to the courses in the Italian Naval Warfare Training Centre to be qualified in “junior weapons officer”.

In 2002 he completed his specialization as “senior weapons officer”; the year after, he attended the Naval Warfare Course in Taranto.

In 2007 he attended Naval Warfare College in Venice and the Commanding Officer Course in Augusta. In 2012-2013, he attended

Joint Staff Course in Rome and obtained a Master Degree in Strategic and Military International Studies.

From 1998 to 2017 he has been appointed as:

- officer in training onboard FFG ITS Euro (1998)
- anti air warfare officer onboard DDG ITS Francesco Mimbelli (1999-2003)
- chief of operational branch, weapons officer, and combat system engineer onboard OPV ITS Comandante Foscari;
- weapons officer on board of FFG ITS Aliseo (2005 - 2007);
- Commanding Officer of PV ITS Esploratore (2007-2008);
- Weapons officer and afterward as chief of operational branch on board DDG ITS Luigi Durand De La Penne (2008-2012);
- Staff Officer of Defence General Staff, 3rd Division (Policy and Planning), International Organization Policy Office – NATO Section (2013-2017).

From the 10th October 2017, he is Commanding Officer of the FFG ITS Euro.

Commander Pisani has been awarded with:

- Long service at sea medal (10 years);
- Long service medal (16 years);
- National medal for participation to Multinational Force and Observers in Sinai ;
- NATO medal for operation “ACTIVE ENDEAVOR”;
- NATO medal for operation “ALLIED PROVIDER”
- Ribbon of merit for the service provided at the General Staff of the defense.

He is married with Mrs Licia and they have two daughters, Isabella and Mariana.